

Prayer

Every Wednesday with fasting included on the first Wednesday of every month

SEPTEMBER 22

God was, is, and always will be faithful. As we seek the Lord in prayer today let's start our time with thanksgiving as we think about all that He has done. In sickness He has kept us. In sadness He has lifted up our heads with hope. Through the trials He has encouraged us. In times of need He has provided. He is our refuge and our strength!

Oh, give thanks to the Lord, for He is good!

For His mercy endures forever.

Psalms 118:29

There is no greater way to live this Christian life than in community with God's people. Let's pray that God would help us to get and stay connected. Let's also pray for broken relationships to be healed and for the God's love to wash over our hearts.

Confess your trespasses to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much.

James 5:11

As the Lord has been graciously stretching and sometimes even disciplining us as His beloved children, let us not grow tired or frustrated. It's in these times that we need to remind ourselves that God's heart is always for us and never against us. Let's pray for awakened and ready hearts to obey.

Galatians 6:9 And let us not grow weary while doing good, for in due season we shall reap if we do not lose heart.

Proverbs 3:11 My son, do not despise the chastening of the Lord, Nor detest His correction; For whom the Lord loves He corrects..

Lastly, as we wait on the Lord, may He cause our hearts to arise. May bring revival to our souls.

Therefore He says: "Awake, you who sleep, Arise from the dead, And Christ will give you light."

See then that you walk circumspectly, not as fools but as wise, redeeming the time, because the days are evil.

Ephesians 5:14-16

And so we have the prophetic word confirmed, which you do well to heed as a light that shines in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts;

2 Peter 1:19
